GETTING TO CHURTON HEATH FARM

Churton Heath Farm B & B is located just south of Chester. To reach us by road, you need to get onto the A55, which is the ring road that goes round Chester to the south. The directions below first tell you how to get onto the A55 from the motorway network, and then how to find us from the A55 – easy!

- GETTING ONTO THE A55
- From the north – take M6 southbound, cross the Thelwall Viaduct and turn onto M56 West (signposted Chester and North Wales) at Junction 20.
- From the east – take M62 westbound and turn onto M6 southbound at Junction 10 of the M62, cross the Thelwall Viaduct and turn onto M56 West (signposted Chester and North Wales) at Junction 20.
- From the south – take the M6 northbound, turn onto the M56 West (signposted Chester and North Wales) at Junction 20 (junction after Knutsford services).
- From the west – take A55 eastbound to Chester.
- From Liverpool and Wirral – take M53 southbound. This turns into the A55 as you near Chester.
- DIRECTIONS FROM THE A55
- Take A41 south towards Whitchurch. After around 2 miles turn right onto Saighton Lane (signposted 'Saighton'). Follow this road for 2.5 miles, going through Saighton and Bruera villages. Churton Heath Farm is on the left hand side just after Bruera church.
- IF YOU DON'T LIKE MOTORWAYS...
- From the south, take the A41 north toward Chester. Once you've passed Whitchurch, you will go through a small village named 'Milton Green'. About a mile after going through Milton Green, take a left hand turn into Platts Lane (signposted 'Bruera'). Follow this for about 1 mile to T junction. Turn left onto Chapel Lane (signposted 'Aldford'). Churton Heath Farm is on the left hand side just after Bruera church.
